VILLAGE OF ELMORE – INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETING ANNUAL RETURNS – YEAR 2016
$25 LATE FEE IF RECEIVED OR POSTMARKED AFTER APRIL 18, 2017
FIRST QUARTER ESTIMATE IS DUE WITH RETURN

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Joint returns may be filed by married persons only.
2. All residents or persons domiciled in the Village are required to file an annual return regardless of whether any tax is due.
3. Domiciled is defined as the legal residence of the taxpayer. Taxpayers may only have one legal residence at a time. Persons temporarily out of the community do not lose their residence status if they plan to return, if they file tax returns, vote or use the address to receive their mail.
4. Retired persons receiving only pensions, interest income or other types of exempted income need only check off that they are retired and return the signed form to the Administrator by April 15th of each year to maintain their exempt status.
5. All earned income must be reported such as wages, salaries, compensation for services, lotteries or gambling, income from businesses or professions, rental income or farm income must be reported. Use Medicare Wages (Box 5) as your gross income. The tax is on the gross income before any deductions for taxes, deferred income, or contributions to a 401k plan.
6. Notify the tax office immediately of changes of address, as failure to receive a form is no excuse for not filing a return as required.
7. Payment of any tax due along with the first quarter of the current year estimate must be made when filing the return. Checks must be made payable to the Village of Elmore.
8. Penalties and Interest will be assessed if the return is filed after the due date or if less than the required estimate payments are not paid by January 30th of the year following the end of the tax year.
